

Tea Party Picnic – Game Instruction

Title: Tea Party Picnic

Category: Outdoor

Subcategory: Females

Players: 2+ players

Time Required: 20–30 minutes

---

Description

A charming and elegant outdoor pretend-play activity where girls dress up, sip pretend tea, and enjoy a magical picnic full of giggles, stories, and friendship.

Materials Needed

- Toy tea set or safe real cups and teapots
  - Picnic blanket, small table, or play mats
  - Pretend food or light snacks (cookies, fruit, crackers)
  - Napkins, flower decorations, and dress-up items (hats, scarves, tiaras)
  - Optional: dolls or stuffed animals as guests

How to Play

- Set up a pretty picnic space with a tea set, snacks, and seating.
  - Players choose roles — host, guest, or princess — and take turns pouring and serving tea.
  - Encourage everyone to use their best manners and gentle voices.
  - Enjoy storytelling, polite conversation, or simple games like “Who Am I?”
  - Dolls and plush toys can be invited as special guests!

Tips & Variations

- Play relaxing music or classical melodies to set the mood.
- Use flower petals or paper doilies for decoration.
- Make it a fairy tale tea party — dress as queens, fairies, or storybook characters.
- Give each child a “tea name” like Lady Rose or Princess Petal.

- Take photos for a pretend “royal invitation album.”
