

Paper Plane Contest – Game Instruction

Title: Paper Plane Contest

Category: Indoor

Subcategory: Family

Players: 2 or more

Time Required: 15–30 Minutes

Description

Paper Plane Contest is a creative and engaging game where participants fold their own paper airplanes and compete in categories like distance, accuracy, or airtime. It combines crafting, competition, and fun—making it ideal for all ages during indoor family gatherings.

Materials Needed

- A4 or letter-size paper (at least 1 per player)
 - Markers or stickers for customization (optional)
 - Measuring tape or ruler (for distance)
 - Target (e.g., a hoop or taped area on the floor)
 - Score sheet and pen (optional)

How to Play

Setup:

Each participant designs and folds their own paper airplane. Set up a launch line and, if needed, a target area.

Objective:

Compete in one or more categories:

- Distance – Farthest flight
- Accuracy – Closest to target
- Airtime – Longest time in air

Rules:

- Players must use the same type of paper.
- One throw per round (or more depending on rules).
- Judges or timers keep score for each category.

- Optionally, points are assigned per category for overall scoring.

Winning:

The player or team with the highest combined points or best performance in chosen categories wins.

Tips & Variations

- Have a practice round to test designs.
- Allow different folding techniques and see what flies best.
- Create airplane “classes” (basic, advanced, trick) for fairness.
- Play indoors in a hallway or open room with low wind interference.
- Offer small rewards for winners of each category.
